

WHAT READERS SAY

I started reading Best We Forget one night and couldn't put it down until I'd finished – late the next day. It's brilliant!

- Danny, a Vet.

My wife was wandering around the kitchen preparing dinner with one hand and reading this book with the other. "For God's sake ", I said, "put that book down and get my dinner!" She refused.

- Paul, Vietnam Vet.

It's all your fault Bernard, I was on the train on my way home from work, engrossed in your book, and went right to the end of the line – five stations after where I should have got off!

- Marg.

The humour is infectious, the personalities vivid and it makes for compelling reading.

- Barry.

I enjoyed it immensely. I'm wondering whether you considered writing this as a TV or movie script since it has enough sub plots to keep a TV or movie audience guessing ...

- Dr Mark.

I have just completed reading your book. In fact, I couldn't put it down. It brought back many memories, some I haven't thought of for years. Thank you for a walk down memory lane. Your book is excellent.

- Bob, Vietnam Vet.

It should be compulsory reading for anyone who has had dealings with Vietnam Vets and for the Vets themselves. It has kept me smiling, angry, entertained, the whole gamut of emotions have passed by.

- Trina, wife of a Vietnam vet.

I could not put it down once I picked it up which is a good sign of how good it is.

- Sam, Vietnam vet.

Best We Forget is Australia's Catch 22. It's brilliant.

- David.
